MILAN
HAUTE
 COUTURE

Always the trailblazer—whether it be in fashion, food or design—Milan has long been setting the tone for the rest of the world. And, when it comes to style and décor, it's not just about the art of the mix, but more importantly, the element of surprise. Here, designer Barry Dixon's seemingly turn-of-the-century Synapse pendant complements both the sleek, modern lines of B&B Italia's Metropolitan ottoman and the delicate form of Nina Tolstrup's Tall chair. Milan is by nature an effortlessly sartorial city, yet it's not a reputation easily received without great thought and consideration. British fashion duo Peter Pilotto exercises the city's fearlessness in their latest runway collection, where silhouette and pattern are brazenly exhibited through unorthodox materials like Perspex.
