

CTC & G

Connecticut Cottages and Gardens

COTTAGESGARDENS.COM | JANUARY 2017

HOBBI AWARDS

A FRESH
POINT
OF VIEW

Kitchens That Inspire
New Designs For Lighting
Interiors With Personality

LIGHTING

5. The multifaceted, jewelry-inspired Motif chandelier by CORBETT flaunts a convex shade comprised of molten Italian glass. An overlay of glass-gem pieces is encased in brilliant gold leaf. Through Connecticut Lighting, Hartford, 860-249-7631, ctlighting.com, corbettlighting.com. 6. A marriage of global craft and modern geometry, the Dolma chandelier, designed by Windsor Smith for ARTERIORS, suspends polished brass hexagons from decorative link chains. 800-338-2150, arteriorshome.com. 7. Light gilt bronze and satin brass surround a striking, blown-glass cylinder in the AVRETT Joggle pendant. Through John Rosselli & Associates, D&D, 212-593-2060, johnrosselli.com (T), avrett.com. 8. Designer Jonathan Browning's Boule de Cristal Linear chandelier for RH MODERN evokes the minimalist spirit of 1960s design. Each faceted crystal sphere is ground and polished by hand to reflect and refract the light. Westport, 203-222-1027, Greenwich, 203-552-1040, rhmodern.com. 9. Simplistic in form and function, the Petworth lantern by VAUGHAN is available in bronze (shown here), nickel or brass. D&D, NYC, 212-319-7070, (T) vaughandesigns.com. 10. URBAN ARCHAEOLOGY'S Hourglass Constellation fixture consists of matte black hourglass-shaped pendants lined in satin brass and suspended from a single canopy. NYC, 212-371-4646, urbanarchaeology.com.